President's Message

Dear Fellow Members and Friends,

Welcome to the August Newsletter. After a month's break in July, we are back with a number of interesting activities for you. Please be on the lookout so as not to miss any.

We are equally excited to announce our Open House is back, after a long hiatus of 3 years!

The Open House is a fellowship gathering of members, guests and potential members. It's the opportunity for you to:

- get to know more about The Malaysian Culture Group, our vision and mission, and what we do
- meet our committee and volunteers
- get up close and personal with the special interest group teams
- learn how you can get involved

Admission is free and you have the chance to win some special gifts.

Space is limited and filling up fast! If you have not done so, please check your inbox and RSVP quickly for yourself and your potential guests.

Look forward to seeing you and many of your guests at the Open House on Wednesday, 13th September 2023 at the Royal Selangor Golf Club.

With my warmest regards,

Ay Ling Liem
